

Anthony

Needs a Family

Anthony, age 15, is a sweet and thoughtful young man whose patient demeanor makes him great with younger kids. He also has wonderful manners and genuinely enjoys helping others. Anthony loves to play many different sports, but soccer and basketball are easily his favorite. This year Anthony played in a youth basketball league and was excited that his team made it all the way to the championships! Anthony also likes swimming with his friends, playing in the park, and going camping during the summer. When Anthony isn't running around outside, he may be exploring his love for music and abstract art. He is currently learning to play the piano and hopes to take up the guitar next!

Anthony dreams to someday have his very own family cheering him on at his basketball games. He also says he wouldn't mind having a sibling or two. Could you be the family Anthony is seeking?
