

Luis

Needs a Family

Luis, age 13, is a quiet and reserved young boy. He has excellent manners, is very patient and enjoys helping others.

Luis loves to participate in many activities. He especially likes to play board games where he can showcase his math skills and mental agility. Above all, Luis is considered a team player among his peers. He enjoys playing games with his phone and being outdoors. He loves music and is open to all genres and sub-genres of music.

Luis would like to connect with a host family to share his future accomplishments with. He would also like to have a team cheering him on at his graduation ceremony. Could you be the family for Luis?

Can you help?
